ORDER:-

Government has considered it necessary to have real time data sharing portal between the revenue earning departments, to plug leakages. The portal is expected to correlate data across departments. It is also considered necessary to examine the feasibility of levy of Entertainment Tax by local bodies to mobilise additional revenue sources and also the possibility of storing B2C transactions happening through banking channels. In this context, it is considered necessary to constitute a Committee with the Chief Secretary, Government of Telangana as the Chairperson and Special Chief Secretaries / Principal Secretaries / Secretaries of the concerned Departments as its Members.

1. The committee shall study the following proposals:

1.1 Establishing a RevOne portal- To establish a unified, intelligence-driven revenue ecosystem that enables real-time data sharing and plugs leakages across all departments.

1.2 The feasibility of levy of Entertainment Tax by local bodies.

1.3 To examine the introduction of legislation enabling the State Government to securely capture and store, for a limited duration, transaction-level data of B2C sales conducted through POS, UPI and Similar Channels.

2. The detailed scope of work for the Committee shall be on the lines as enunciated below:

2.1 With regard to the RevOne Portal:

a. Benefit Analysis and extent of data sharing: To evaluate the data fields in the relevant data bases, the benefits that will accrue and decide the extent that can be shared within the legally permissible limits.

b. Data Standardization: Implementing a universal API architecture centred on the PAN identifier, issuing required guidelines to this effect. Finalising a seamless interoperability framework.

c. Procurement Policy: Streamlining the selection of a software vendor to ensure cost-efficiency.

d. Security & Privacy: Establishing protocols for sensitive financial data exchange. Defining the number of users for each department.

e. Timelines for Go-live: Finalising the milestones on data sharing. development of applications and launch of the Portal.

2.2 Feasibility of levy of Entertainment Tax by local bodies: Exploring the possibility of levy of Entertainment tax by local bodies in the wake of amendments to the State list through 101st Constitutional Amendment Act, studying the levy in different states and providing an appropriate recommendation on the issue.

2.3 Digital oversight of B2C Commerce: To examine the introduction of legislation enabling the State Government to securely capture and store, for a limited duration, transaction-level data of B2C sales conducted through POS, UPI, etc while complying with the Digital Personal Data Protection (DPDP) Act, 2023 and other relevant Acts.

3. Composition:

3.1 Chairperson: The Chief Secretary, Government of Telangana.

3.2 Convenor: Secretary Revenue (CT & Excise)

3.3 Members:

a) Special Chief Secretary, Metropolitan Area & urban Development
b) Special Chief Secretary, Transport Roads and Buildings
